About LUX

The actively managed Tema Luxury ETF seeks to provide long-term growth by investing in companies operating in the luxury industry.

These companies typically have dominant growing brands with aspirational timeless qualities leading to resilient business fundamentals.

The universe of luxury spans fashion items, accessories, automobiles, hospitality and beauty.

Why LUX

Timeless aspirational moats

Luxury brands have a timeless and aspirational appeal to consumers, creating heritage-based moats and allowing them to travel easily

Underpenetration

Luxury brands benefit from strong volume growth drivers across different underpenetrated verticals including geographies (emerging markets), demographics (gen-Z), channels (e-commerce) and sustainability (ESG)

Pricing power

Luxury brands can be characterized as exhibiting superior pricing power evidenced by consistent organic growth and strong gross margins (~70%)

Source: Bloomberg

Quality

The luxury sector differentiates itself in quality products and quality business characteristics, such as operating margins and high returns on capital

Defensive nature

Luxury markets historically exhibit only mild cyclicity, supported by the affluence of typical luxury consumers combined with the aspirational and unique nature of the product or service

Fund inception date: 05/11/2023. The performance data quoted represents past performance. Past performance does not guarantee future results. The investment return and principal value of an investment will fluctuate so that an investor's shares, when sold or redeemed, may be worth more or less than their original cost and current performance may be lower or higher than the performance quoted. Brokerage commissions will reduce returns. For performance data current to the most recent month-end visit temaetfs.com/lux. Short term performance, in particular, is not a good indication of the fund's future performance, and an investment should not be made based solely on returns.

Risk Information

Before investing, carefully consider the Fund's investment objective, risks, charges, and expenses contained in the prospectus available at www.temaetfs.com. Read carefully before investing.

Important Risks

Investing involves risk including possible loss of principal. There is no guarantee the adviser's investment strategy will be successful.

Sector Focus Risk: The Fund may invest a significant portion of its assets in one or more sectors, including Consumer Discretionary and Consumer Staples, and thus will be more susceptible to the risks affecting those sectors than funds that have more diversified holdings across several sectors.

The success of companies that sell luxury goods and services may depend heavily on the disposable household income and consumer spending of a relatively small segment of the general population, rather than the consumer population as a whole. Changes in consumer taste among such segment of the population can also affect the demand for, and success of, luxury goods and services in the marketplace. Consumer spending on luxury goods and services can also be adversely affected as a result of declines in consumer confidence levels, even if prevailing economic conditions are favorable. In an economic downturn, consumer discretionary spending levels generally decline, often resulting in disproportionately large reductions in the sale of luxury goods and services.

Investing in foreign and emerging markets involves risks relating to political, economic, or regulatory conditions not associated with investments in U.S. securities and instruments. In addition, the fund is exposed to currency risk.

ETFs are bought and sold at market price (not NAV) and are not individually redeemed from the Fund. Total Returns are calculated using the daily 4:00pm EST net asset value (NAV). Market price returns reflect the midpoint of the bid/ask spread as of the close of trading of the exchange where Fund shares are listed. Market price returns do not represent the returns you would receive if you traded shares at other times.
