About RSHO

The actively managed Tema American Reshoring ETF seeks to provide long-term growth by investing in companies that stand to benefit from manufacturing moving back to US shores.

This long-term process is already leading to the upgrading and securing of supply chains, and reindustrialization, reinvigorating the domestic economy.

The fund will predominantly invest in companies that span sectors such as industrials, transport, infrastructure, materials, and semiconductors.

Why RSHO

Secular Trend

Supply chain disruptions, trade wars and geopolitics are encouraging companies to bring operations back to US shores

Industrial Renaissance

Upgrading America's industrial and infrastructure footprint is creating an uplift in industrial technology, a key sub-theme of reshoring

Bipartisan Support

US government reshoring initiatives, already amounting to over $1.85 Tn of spending and growing, have unprecedented bipartisan support and can potentially present large growth opportunities for beneficiaries

Competitive Advantage

Early movers in reshoring could gain a significant advantage via resilient supply chains and closer proximity to end users

Pure Exposure

The fund conducts deep and comprehensive research, selecting only those businesses that we believe will be the long term winners of the American reshoring trend

Risk Information

Important Risks

Investing involves risk including possible loss of principal. There is no guarantee the adviser's investment strategy will be successful.

Sector Focus Risk: The Fund may invest a significant portion of its assets in one or more sectors, including Industrials, Materials and Utilities, and thus will be more susceptible to the risks affecting those sectors than funds that have more diversified holdings across several sectors.

The success of the Fund's investment strategy depends in part on the ability of the companies in which it invests to reshore or onshore services to the United States. Companies may face significant legal, financial and political headwinds in the reshoring or onshoring of jobs into the United States, and these factors may be detrimental to performance.

Industrial and Utilities sector companies will likewise be subject to the risks of Government regulation, world events, exchange rates and economic conditions, technological developments and liabilities for environmental damage and general civil liabilities. In addition, many materials companies are significantly affected by the level and volatility of commodity prices, exchange rates, import controls, worldwide competition, environmental policies and consumer demand.

Investing in foreign and emerging markets involves risks relating to political, economic, or regulatory conditions not associated with investments in U.S. securities and instruments. In addition the fund is exposed to currency risk.

ETFs are bought and sold at market price (not NAV) and are not individually redeemed from the Fund. Total Returns are calculated using the daily 4:00pm EST net asset value (NAV). Market price returns reflect the midpoint of the bid/ask spread as of the close of trading of the exchange where Fund shares are listed. Market price returns do not represent the returns you would receive if you traded shares at other times.
